DEAR FAMILY: So begin the letters to her family of Elena, age 18, and so begins a new series of programs devoted to those letters. Elena was one of a group of students from one of the UC campuses who went to France to attend the University of Bordeaux, 1963-64. Wanting no part of the "American student colony" intramural activities, she struck out on her own taking prolonged weekends and extended vacations hitchhiking all over Europe and the Middle East. These perceptive, engrossing letters from which eighteen programs were recorded by actress Eve Brenner will be heard evenings, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday, beginning Oct. 26; and rebroadcast mornings, Monday through Friday, beginning Nov. 1. (Publishers and film producers, listen and take note.)

HAPPY (BOO!) HALLOWE'EN: Our annual Hallowe'en party on Sunday, Oct. 31, from 7 onward. Most of the details of programs new and old can be found in the regular listings, but, as usual, we'll come up with surprises all evening. Tune your pumpkin to 90.7 and keep the candle lit!

LIVE CONCERTS AND NEW RECORDINGS: The Compinskys give a Studio Concert on Oct. 26, Henri Temianka's "Let's Talk Music" is broadcast from UCLA on Nov. 11, and the third live Jazz Concert will be heard on Nov. 1. More: concerts on tape from East and West Germany and new commercial recordings, including Britten's opera, "Albert Herring," Nov. 11.

NEW SERIES PROGRAMS: Comedy with Laird Brooks Schmidt (Wednesdays), Ray Meyers, W6MLZ, talks about amateur radio (Sundays), Lee Whiting gives us current folk music (midnight Mondays), and the popular "Radio Rides Again" rides again Wednesday nights.

CHANGING TIMES: Note new times for "Evenings on the Roof" (Sundays, 4:30 p.m.), "Eine Grosse Nachtmusick" (alternate Thursdays, 11) and "Scope of Jazz" on alternate Fridays, 11 p.m.

We've discovered the name of the photographer who took the picture on our last cover: Carl Toothman, who lives in Venice.
